BIOGRAPHY

Camille Gillybœuf was born in Talence, France in 1995 and, since 2013, lives in Sydney, Australia. She is an emerging visual artist who recently finished her Master of Fine Art majoring in Drawing at the National Art School (Sydney). She also holds a Bachelor of Visual Arts (Fine Arts) from Federation University Australia (Victoria).

She is the winner of the 2022 Waverley Art Prize People's Choice Award with her charcoal self-portrait For Myself and was also selected for the Tony White Memorial Art Prize as part of the 2020 Kangaroo Valley Art Prize, Fisher's Ghost Art Award (2017), The Shirl National Youth Portrait Prize (2017), Mosman Youth Art Prize (2016), Blacktown City Art Prize (2016). Gillybœuf was awarded two years in a row the Marjory Baker Memorial Youth Award (ADFAS Camden) in 2016 and 2017.

In 2021, her charcoal drawing Cyprès was acquired for the National Art School Collection, Sydney.
